Before or at any meeting of the Board of Directors, any Director may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a Director at any meeting of the Board shall be a waiver of notice by him or the time and place thereof, except when a Director attends for the express purpose of objecting to lack of notice. If all the Directors are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

10. Board of Directors' Quorum.

At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of all the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board. When discharging his or her duties, a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by any of the following, so long as the director acts without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted:
